

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Adlerian Couples Therapy, with its emphasis on social interest, goal-directedness, and cooperative family living will be dynamically demonstrated. Several couples will be featured showing change in action through video demonstration. Material found in Dr. Carlson's latest book, FAMILY THERAPY TECHNIQUES, will be elaborated. The majestic theater setting of the American Film Institute (AFI), in the heart of Silver Spring's new and thriving downtown, will further heighten this enriching conference.

Jon Carlson, PsyD, EdD. has been named a "living legend" by the American Counseling Association, who has honored him with several professional development and social service awards. He is a Fellow of the American Psychological Association and holds a Diplomate in Family Psychology from the American Board of Professional Psychology as well as a Diplomate from the North American Society of Adlerian Psychology. Dr. Carlson is a Distinguished Professor of Psychology and Counseling at Governors State University in University Park, Illinois and Director of the Lake Geneva Wellness Clinic in Geneva, Wisconsin. He has authored 40 books and produced over 200 commercially available videos and DVD's with today's most eminent therapists.

In November, 2004 Dr. Carlson and colleagues had an audience with His Holiness the Dalai Lama in India, exploring a collaboration of Buddhist concepts and Western science. Dr. Carlson is a prolific practitioner, an engaging presenter and a world class citizen.
